

- Question 1 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question According to the authors of your textbook, it is important to study psychology because
- Answer  studying psychology can help you to understand yourself and others.
 studying psychology can help you to interpret and evaluate the psychological topics presented in the media and on the Internet.
 you cannot consider yourself educated without knowing something about psychology.
 all of these are reasons to study psychology.
- Add Question Here
- Question 2 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question One of the reasons to study psychology is to
- Answer  understand ourselves and others better.
 learn how to manipulate others for personal gain.
 utilize in combination with the field of astrology in predicting human behavior.
 have the answers to all of life's questions.
- Add Question Here
- Question 3 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question The word psychology comes from the roots psyche and logos, which mean respectively
- Answer  behavior and science.
 brain and science.
 mind and knowledge or study.
 personality and knowledge or study.
- Add Question Here
- Question 4 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Psychology is best defined as the
- Answer  empirical study of the human personality.
 study of individual differences in the group behavior of humans and animals.
 scientific study of behavior and mental processes.
 scientific study of the relationship between mind and body.
- Add Question Here
- Question 5 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Psychology would best be described as
- Answer  the study of human origins, evolution, and cultures.
 the scientific study of behavior and mental processes.
 a natural science integrating physiology and neurology.
 the deductive study of forms and functions of human groups.
- Add Question Here
- Question 6 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question According to the definition of psychology, which of the following would a psychologist be most likely to study?
- Answer  the genetic diversity in a population of domestic animals how to select employees based on their handwriting analyses the influence of a teacher on a student's academic success the determination of personality traits using the position of the stars and planets at the time of one's birth
- Add Question Here
- Question 7 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Psychologists
- Answer  are scientists who conduct research.
 are practitioners who apply psychology to solve problems in fields like education and medicine.
 are teachers.
 may be scientists, practitioners, and/or teachers.
- Add Question Here
- Question 8 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question All psychologists
- Answer  conduct research to discover new knowledge.
 apply psychology to solve problems in mental health, education, medicine, or business.
 are teachers who pass on knowledge of psychology to their students.
 rely on critical thinking and information gained from scientific research.
- Add Question Here
- Question 9 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question The research conducted by psychologist involves
- Answer  the validation of common-sense beliefs in predicting everyday experiences.
 the systematic use of common-sense beliefs in solving new problems.

- ✓ gathering information through direct observation.
- a reliance on subjective opinions and rationalizations.

Add Question Here

Question 10

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Psychological research found which of the following common-sense beliefs to be FALSE?

- Answer
- Most humans use only 10 percent of their potential brainpower.
  - To change people's behavior toward members of ethnic minority groups, we must first change their attitudes.
  - Psychotherapy has its greatest success in the treatment of psychotic patients who have lost touch with reality.
  - ✓ All of these common-sense beliefs were found to be FALSE.

Add Question Here

Question 11

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Psychological research found which of the following common-sense beliefs to be FALSE?

- Answer
- Babies love their mothers because their mothers fulfill their babies' physiological need for food.
  - Blind people have unusually sensitive organs of touch.
  - The more motivated you are, the better you will do at solving a complex problem.
  - ✓ All of these common-sense beliefs were found to be FALSE.

Add Question Here

Question 12

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question A common sense approach to psychology is

- Answer
- the most reliable.
  - ✓ often contradicted by empirical evidence.
  - the basis for most psychological theories.
  - the basis psychologist use when collecting data.

Add Question Here

Question 13

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Common sense is a poor source of psychological information because it is

- Answer
- always in error.
  - ✓ a barrier to seeking better information.
  - too empirical.
  - not based on any form of observation.

Add Question Here

Question 14

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Which of the following statements regarding the use of common sense is TRUE?

- Answer
- Common sense has no value.
  - Common sense and personal observations usually provide all the information one needs to know about any situation.
  - Common sense statements provide systematic data.
  - ✓ Common sense often provides vague and inconsistent pieces of information.

Add Question Here

Question 15

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question According to your psychology textbook, which of the following activities would be considered "behavior"?

- Answer
- A student feels sad because of her grade.
  - A student daydreams in class.
  - A teacher writes an assignment on the board.
  - ✓ All of these would be considered behaviors.

Add Question Here

Question 16

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Behavior is best described as

- Answer
- ✓ anything a person does.
  - only those things a person does that everyone can see.
  - only those things which can be recorded by a camera.
  - those things that a person intentionally does, excluding all behaviors that occur accidentally.

Add Question Here

Question 17

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Overt behavior includes

- Answer
- anything a person does.
  - things a person does which cannot be seen by others.
  - ✓ only those things that can be observed.
  - hidden, private, internal thoughts.

Add Question Here

Question 18

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Covert behavior involves

- Answer
- anything a person does.
  - only those things a person does which another person can see.
  - only those things which can be recorded by a camera.
  - ✓ hidden, private, internal thoughts.

Add Question Here

Question 19

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Which of the following behaviors can best be described as overt behavior?

- Answer ✓ watching a TV game show thinking about the answer to a contestant's question being sad that the contestant answered incorrectly wondering if there are any frozen waffles left in the freezer

Add Question Here

Question 20

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Which of the following is the best example of covert behavior?

- Answer blinking in response to a light imitating a friend's gesture ✓ remembering a pleasant experience rapid eye movements while sleeping

Add Question Here

Question 21

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Professor Reed asked her introductory psychology students to give an example of a covert behavior. Which of the following would be an example of a covert behavior?

- Answer ✓ daydreaming about the coming weekend sneezing into a handkerchief
gesturing to someone to come over to the group telling the class to be quiet by saying "shhh" softly

Add Question Here

Question 22

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Professor Windham asks her general psychology students to give an example of an overt behavior. Which of the following would be an example of an overt behavior?

- Answer feeling happy that class is almost over daydreaming about the coming weekend
✓ gesturing to someone to come over to the group
remembering the definition of overt behavior

Add Question Here

Question 23

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Which of the following topics would be studied by psychologists by collecting empirical evidence?

- Answer love intelligence
groupthink
✓ all of these

Add Question Here

Question 24

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Information gained from direct observation and measurement defines

- Answer introspective data. subjective data.
a scientific hypothesis.
✓ empirical evidence.

Add Question Here

Question 25

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Scientific observation is based on the

- Answer gathering of introspective data.
utilization of personal, subjective data.
utilization of common-sense beliefs.
✓ gathering of empirical evidence.

Add Question Here

Question 26

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question An empirical investigation that is structured to answer questions about the world is called a(n)

- Answer ✓ scientific observation.
interpretative research.
investigative analysis.
experiential analysis.

Add Question Here

Question 27

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question _____ involves information gained from direct observation.

- Answer ✓ Empirical evidence
A theoretical notation
A common-sense belief
Introspective data

Add Question Here

- Question 28 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question When a scientist wants to find out if there is empirical evidence, they utilize data, which is defined as _____ facts.
- Answer
- common-sense
  - deduced
  - observed
  - inferred
- Add Question Here
- Question 29 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question When a psychologist uses scientific observation, these observations must
- Answer
- involve logic and common-sense reasoning.
  - be conducted using animals rather than humans.
  - be planned and confirmed by more than one observer.
  - involve all of these.
- Add Question Here
- Question 30 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question When observations are reliably confirmed by multiple observers, this is referred to as
- Answer
- multimodal.
  - intersubjective.
  - multidisciplinary.
  - correlational.
- Add Question Here
- Question 31 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question A scientist wants to find out if there is empirical evidence for a relationship between caffeine and aggressive behavior. She would
- Answer
- interview people to get their opinions.
  - correlate newspaper accounts and the types of beverages consumed.
  - test the idea by conducting an experiment.
  - gather the opinions of experts in the fields of neurology and sociology.
- Add Question Here
- Question 32 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question An expert tells you that "you can catch a cold by not wearing a coat when it is cold." You would
- Answer
- accept his statement since you remember catching a cold after you forgot your coat.
  - accept his statement because it is based on commonsense reasoning.
  - ask him to list additional experts that support his theory.
  - ask to see the empirical evidence that supports his theory.
- Add Question Here
- Question 33 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Psychology is different than fields such as history, law, and business because of the reliance on
- Answer
- anecdotal evidence.
  - the scientific observation to study behavior.
  - the common sense of past generations.
  - direct philosophic inquiry.
- Add Question Here
- Question 34 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question A systematic process for answering scientific questions is called
- Answer
- a research method.
  - a scientific deduction.
  - the induction method.
  - the analytical method.
- Add Question Here
- Question 35 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Some topics in psychology are difficult to study because
- Answer
- they overlap with other fields, such as law and business.
  - of ethical considerations.
  - advanced technology that measures brain waves is not available.
  - of a lack of interest in human behavior.
- Add Question Here
- Question 36 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Some topics in psychology are difficult to study because
- Answer
- it would be unethical to study the topic.
  - there is no practical way that the research can be conducted.
  - there is no suitable research method available to study the topic.
  - all of these situations can occur.
- Add Question Here
- Question 37 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question It may be difficult to study the difference in academic achievement between children who do and do not eat breakfast at a boarding school because

- Answer
- it is impossible to monitor.
  - the scientists would have to rely on the children's self-reports.
  - ✓ it is unethical to require that some children not eat breakfast.
  - some children do not like to eat breakfast.

Add Question Here

Question 38 Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question When animal behavior is used to discover principles that may apply to human behavior, we say that the researcher is utilizing a(n)

- Answer
- anthropomorphic systems approach.
  - ✓ animal model.
  - zoophilic design.
  - model that will yield inaccurate results.

Add Question Here

Question 39 Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Animals are used in psychological research because

- Answer
- psychologists are interested in the behavior of all living creatures.
  - animal models of behavior can often be applied to human behavior.
  - the study of animals can benefit both animals and humans.
  - ✓ all of these reasons apply.

Add Question Here

Question 40 Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Teaching primates to communicate in sign language in order to develop better methods for teaching language to aphasic children would be an example of a(n)

- Answer
- anthropomorphic error.
  - ✓ animal model.
  - inaccurate design.
  - correlational study.

Add Question Here

Question 41 Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Animal studies have helped us in our understanding of

- Answer
- stress, learning, obesity, aging, and sleep.
  - how to care for domestic animals.
  - how to care for the endangered species in zoos.
  - ✓ all of these.

Add Question Here

Question 42 Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question The goals of psychology are to describe, understand, _____, and control behavior.

- Answer
- ✓ predict
  - preserve
  - perpetuate
  - prescribe

Add Question Here

Question 43 Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question The goals of psychology are to

- Answer
- develop effective methods of psychotherapy and cure mental illness.
  - ✓ describe, understand, predict, and control behavior.
  - research, infer, summarize, and publish.
  - compare, analyze, and control human behavior.

Add Question Here

Question 44 Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question A psychologist who observes a child for a week and writes a report that identifies and classifies the child's behavior is working toward the goal of

- Answer
- ✓ description.
  - understanding.
  - prediction.
  - control.

Add Question Here

Question 45 Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question In a survey conducted on October 26, researchers find that 55% of the registered voters favor the passage of the school bond issue. These survey results illustrate which goal of psychology?

- Answer
- ✓ description
  - prediction
  - understanding
  - control

Add Question Here

- Question 46 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Why questions refer to which of psychology's goals?
- Answer
- description
  - understanding
  - preservation
  - control
- Add Question Here
-
- Question 47 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question The psychological goal of understanding behavior is achieved when
- Answer
- control over behavior is made possible.
  - a careful description of behavior is made.
  - psychologists can explain why a behavioral phenomenon occurs.
  - empirical evidence is obtained.
- Add Question Here
-
- Question 48 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question John's poor performance in reading was found to be due to visual discrimination problems. This determination of the cause for his poor reading performance illustrates which goal of psychology?
- Answer
- description
  - prediction
  - understanding
  - control
- Add Question Here
-
- Question 49 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Research on "bystander apathy" reveals that people often fail to help when other possible helpers are nearby due to a "diffusion of responsibility." Explaining this perplexing problem meets which goal of psychology?
- Answer
- description
  - prediction
  - understanding
  - control
- Add Question Here
-
- Question 50 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Which goal of psychology is illustrated by a psychologist seeking to discover why sociopaths tend to repeat their destructive behavior?
- Answer
- understanding
  - prediction
  - description
  - control
- Add Question Here
-
- Question 51 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question When current knowledge about an individual and his or her environment can be used to accurately forecast behavior at another time or in another setting, the scientific goal of _____ has been achieved.
- Answer
- description
  - understanding
  - prediction
  - control
- Add Question Here
-
- Question 52 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question An industrial psychologist uses psychometric tests and interviews to select the best candidate for a specialized task. The psychologist's work directly illustrates which goal of psychology?
- Answer
- description
  - understanding
  - prediction
  - control
- Add Question Here
-
- Question 53 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Students who do well on an intelligence test tend to do well in their school grades. This ability of the IQ tests to forecast future school success illustrates which goal of psychology?
- Answer
- description
  - prediction
  - understanding
  - control
- Add Question Here
-
- Question 54 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question On an old science fiction series, TV viewers were always able to tell which crew member would be the most likely to die when the crew was exploring a new planet. It was the crew member wearing the yellow suit, although one never knew the reason for this occurrence. The ability to forecast the demise of the yellow-suited crew member illustrates the ability to
- Answer
- describe behavior.
  - predict behavior.

understand behavior.
influence or control behavior.

Add Question Here

Question 55 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question For most psychologists, control refers to

- Answer
- punishment of unwanted responses.
  - legal limitations on the use of conditioning principles.
  - techniques for reducing personal freedom of choice.
  - altering conditions that influence behavior.

Add Question Here

Question 56 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question _____ is a frequently questioned and misunderstood goal of psychology because it _____.

- Answer
- Control; may seem like a threat to personal freedom
  - Description; does not provide any useful information
  - Understanding; often refers to constructs we cannot see
  - Prediction; stereotypes people

Add Question Here

Question 57 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Which question below relates most directly to the goal of controlling behavior?

- Answer
- Do men and women differ in intellectual abilities?
  - How can test anxiety be prevented?
  - Why does a blow to the head cause memory loss?
  - Does depth perception occur when an individual has only one eye?

Add Question Here

Question 58 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Michelle has learned to avoid situations in which she tends to abuse alcohol. She is exercising the goal of

- Answer
- manipulation.
  - prediction.
  - explanation.
  - control.

Add Question Here

Question 59 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question A psychologist uses systematic desensitization to assist a student in overcoming test anxiety. This illustrates the goal of

- Answer
- description.
  - prediction.
  - control.
  - understanding.

Add Question Here

Question 60 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question An engineering psychologist helps redesign an airplane to make it safer to fly. The psychologist's work reflects which goal of psychology?

- Answer
- description
  - control
  - prediction
  - understanding

Add Question Here

Question 61 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Critical thinking encompasses which of the following?

- Answer
- empirical testing
  - a willingness to actively evaluate ideas
  - an open mind
  - all of these

Add Question Here

Question 62 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Critical thinking in psychology involves

- Answer
- using conventional wisdom and common sense.
  - a reliance on the opinions of experts.
  - using the scientific method.
  - all of these.

Add Question Here

Question 63 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Critical thinking encompasses all of the following EXCEPT

- Answer
- empirical testing.
  - evaluation of evidence.
  - an open mind.

✓ common sense.

Add Question Here

Question 64

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question _____ is an ability to evaluate, compare, analyze, critique, and synthesize information.

Answer

- ✓ Critical thinking
- Transductive thinking
- Deductive thinking
- Creative thinking

Add Question Here

Question 65

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question When people use critical thinking, they

Answer

- validate conventional wisdom.
- ✓ constantly revise their understanding of the world.
- give greater weight to the overall amount of evidence than specific credible facts.
- do all of these.

Add Question Here

Question 66

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Critical thinking includes which of the following questions?

Answer

- What authority is making the claim?
- ✓ What test of this claim has been made?
- Are the tests based on a long-accepted "truth"?
- How is the event explained with common sense?

Add Question Here

Question 67

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Critical thinking includes which of the following questions?

Answer

- Do the findings appear to be objective?
- What was the nature and quality of the tests?
- Has any other independent researcher duplicated the findings?
- ✓ all of these questions

Add Question Here

Question 68

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question In her psychology classes, Dr. Murphey uses problem-based learning cases in order to enhance her students' abilities to analyze, compare, synthesize, critique, and evaluate information about real-life cases involving troubled marriages and caring for elderly parents. Dr. Murphey is attempting to increase her students'

Answer

- transductive reasoning skills.
- commonsense reasoning.
- correlational skills.
- ✓ critical thinking skills.

Add Question Here

Question 69

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Two research studies are conducted on the effects of body piercing on self-esteem. One study found that body piercing increased self-esteem, while the other one found a decrease in self-esteem. If you are a critical thinker, you would

Answer

- reject both studies since conflicting results were obtained.
- compare the credentials of the psychologists that conducted the studies.
- ✓ compare how each study was conducted.
- accept the one that best fits within your frame of reference.

Add Question Here

Question 70

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Any false and unscientific system of beliefs and practices that is offered as an explanation of behavior is called

Answer

- psychoanalysis.
- ✓ pseudo-psychology.
- social learning.
- humanism.

Add Question Here

Question 71

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question In describing pseudopsychologies, it can be said that they

Answer

- ✓ give the appearance of science but are actually false.
- have constantly changed over time as their followers have sought new evidence.
- have followers who are skeptical critics of their own theories.
- are characterized by all of these statements.

Add Question Here

Question 72

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question In describing pseudopsychologies, it can be said that they

Answer

- give the appearance of science but are actually false.
- have changed little over time.

- have followers who avoid evidence that contradicts their beliefs.
- are characterized by all of these statements.

Add Question Here

Modify Remove

Question 73

Multiple Choice

0 points

Question According to your textbook, which of the following is considered to be a pseudo-psychology?

- Answer
- cognitive psychology
  - behaviorism
  - Gestalt psychology
  - astrology

Add Question Here

Modify Remove

Question 74

Multiple Choice

0 points

Question According to your textbook, which of the following is NOT a pseudo-psychology?

- Answer
- psychoanalysis
  - palmistry
  - phrenology
  - astrology

Add Question Here

Modify Remove

Question 75

Multiple Choice

0 points

Question The German anatomy teacher Franz Gall popularized the pseudo-psychology known as

- Answer
- palmistry.
  - phrenology.
  - graphology.
  - astrology.

Add Question Here

Modify Remove

Question 76

Multiple Choice

0 points

Question To assess your personality, a phrenologist would want to

- Answer
- study your handwriting.
  - study the lines on your palm.
  - examine the shape of your skull.
  - record your brain waves with an EEG.

Add Question Here

Modify Remove

Question 77

Multiple Choice

0 points

Question _____ is the out-dated theory that personality is revealed by the bumps on the skull.

- Answer
- Palmistry
  - Phrenology
  - Phenomenology
  - Graphology

Add Question Here

Modify Remove

Question 78

Multiple Choice

0 points

Question Jane goes to a phrenologist. What can she expect from this pseudo-psychologist?.

- Answer
- He will predict her future by reading the lines on her palms.
  - He will explain her personality traits by feeling the bumps on her skull.
  - He will explain her personality traits by analyzing a copy of her handwriting.
  - He will explain how her life is influenced by the position of the stars and planets at her birth.

Add Question Here

Modify Remove

Question 79

Multiple Choice

0 points

Question The fortune teller who studies your palm carefully before announcing that great fortune is in your immediate future is practicing _____ psychology.

- Answer
- applied
  - commonsense
  - pseudo-
  - forensic

Add Question Here

Modify Remove

Question 80

Multiple Choice

0 points

Question To assess your personality, a graphologist would want to

- Answer
- study your handwriting.
  - examine the shape of your skull.
  - study your palm.
  - record your brain waves with an EEG.

Add Question Here

Modify Remove

Question 81

Multiple Choice

0 points

Question Jay pays $5.00 to have a personality profile made through an analysis of his handwriting. Jay has just wasted his money on the pseudo-psychology known as

- Answer
- graphology.
  - dyslexia.

phrenology.
palmistry.

Add Question Here

Question 82 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question Which of the following statements is FALSE regarding graphology?

Answer  Graphologists score close to zero on tests of accuracy in rating personality.
 Graphologists do no better than untrained college students in rating personality and job performance.
 A graphological society concluded that handwriting analysis should not be used to select people for jobs.
 Graphology cannot be used to detect forgeries.

Add Question Here

Question 83 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question Rose is using an astrology program on her computer. By using this pseudo-psychology computer program, she is trying to explain how her life is influenced by the position of the stars and planets at her birth.

Answer  explain her personality by having the program analyze a scanned copy of her handwriting.
 predict when the next lunar eclipse will occur so she can view it with her telescope.
 analyze the latent content of her dreams.

Add Question Here

Question 84 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question According to your textbook, astrology

Answer  has repeatedly been shown to have no scientific validity.
 has scientific validity if you correct for planetary drift.
 is a useful guide for making personal decisions.
 is only valid in very specific and unusual situations.

Add Question Here

Question 85 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question Objections to astrology as a science would include which of the following?

Answer  Few astrologer have tried to apply the scientific method to their work.
 Compatibility claims based on couples' signs have not been upheld by research.
 Astrologer predictions have not been found to be more accurate than would be expected by chance.
 All of these are objections to astrology as a science.

Add Question Here

Question 86 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question A tendency to believe flattering descriptions of oneself is called

Answer  the Barnum effect.
 the astrologer's dilemma.
 the fallacy of positive instances.
 uncritical acceptance.

Add Question Here

Question 87 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question Systems, such as astrology and graphology, enjoy wide popularity because of their

Answer  uncritical acceptance.
 scientific basis.
 accuracy in predicting people's future behavior.
 cost.

Add Question Here

Question 88 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question An elderly lady is greatly impressed by an astrologer who describes her as physically vigorous, innovative, and artistically creative. Her reaction to this flattering description is an example of the fallacy of positive instances.

Answer  uncritical acceptance.
 the Gall effect.
 the confusion of cause and effect.

Add Question Here

Question 89 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question When a person remembers or notices only things that confirm his or her expectations and forgets the rest, he or she is experiencing

Answer  the Barnum Effect.
 the fallacy of positive instances.
 the astrologer's dilemma.
 uncritical acceptance.

Add Question Here

Question 90 Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question Sid believes his dreams forecast the future. He describes all the dreams that came true in the last month. His friend Joey asks him about all the times his dreams did not come true. Sid's tendency to remember the times his dreams came true and forget the times they did not is known as the Barnum Effect.

Answer  the fallacy of positive instances.

the observer effect.
critical thinking.

Add Question Here

Question 91 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Lindsay's friend answered a magazine ad that claimed that her personality could be analyzed by a computer using her birth sign. She tells Lindsay that her computer-generated profile was very accurate and that Lindsay should send in her money and her birthdate to the company. Lindsay should

Answer

- write the company and request the names of satisfied customers in her area.
- find a good phrenologist instead.
- know that good astrological readings cannot be done by computers.
- consider that her friend may have been taken in by the fallacy of positive instances.

Add Question Here

Question 92 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question The more general the prediction a fortune teller or palmist makes, the more believable are the results. This fact has been called the

Answer

- Guilford effect.
- phenologist's fallacy.
- the Barnum effect.
- the Gall fallacy.

Add Question Here

Question 93 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question With respect to astrology, palmistry, and phrenology, it can be said that

Answer

- all are pseudo-psychologies.
- none is subject to the Barnum effect.
- they rarely appear to work due to the fallacy of positive instances.
- astrology is the only system with a scientific basis.

Add Question Here

Question 94 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question If one reads all 12 of the daily horoscopes found in newspapers for several days, one will find that the predictions made are so general that they will fit events that happen everyday as well as being applicable to anybody regardless of their sign. This illustrates the

Answer

- Guilford effect.
- phenologist's fallacy.
- Barnum effect.
- Gall fallacy.

Add Question Here

Question 95 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question In a comparison of pseudo-psychologies and valid psychological principles, which of the following statements is FALSE?

Answer

- Pseudo-psychologies are more of a nuisance and rarely do any harm.
- Valid psychological principles are based on observation and evidence, not opinions.
- Astrology's popularity shows that many people have difficulty separating valid psychology from systems that seem valid but are not.
- The pseudo-psychology of graphology has been used to determine who is hired, given bank credit, or selected for juries.

Add Question Here

Question 96 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question _____ is based on a careful collection of observable evidence, precise definitions, and repeatable results.

Answer

- Empirical analysis
- The scientific method
- Theoretical projection
- A common-sense statement

Add Question Here

Question 97 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Among other things, the scientific method is based on

Answer

- a careful collection of evidence.
- accurate descriptions and measurements.
- repeatable results.
- all of these.

Add Question Here

Question 98 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question _____ is a form of critical thinking based on a careful collection of evidence, accurate descriptions and measurements, precise definitions, controlled observations, and repeatable results.

Answer

- Intuitive thinking
- Conventional wisdom
- The scientific method
- Common sense

Add Question Here

- Question 99 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Which of the following is NOT one of the six elements of the scientific method?
- Answer
- observation
  - common sense
  - proposing a hypothesis
  - theory formulation
- Add Question Here
- Question 100 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Which of the following is NOT one of the six elements of the scientific method?
- Answer
- defining a problem
  - gathering evidence
  - publishing results
  - critiquing previous research
- Add Question Here
- Question 101 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Which of the following is part of the scientific method?
- Answer
- defining a problem
  - anecdotal analysis
  - analysis building
  - survey definition
- Add Question Here
- Question 102 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question The six steps of the scientific method include observation, defining a problem, proposing a hypothesis, testing the hypothesis, publishing the results, and
- Answer
- cost-benefit analysis.
  - anecdotal analysis.
  - theory building.
  - consensus review.
- Add Question Here
- Question 103 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question A scientific explanation that remains tentative until it has been adequately tested is called a(n)
- Answer
- theory.
  - law.
  - hypothesis.
  - experiment.
- Add Question Here
- Question 104 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question An educated guess about what is controlling some behavior is called a(n)
- Answer
- experimental control.
  - hypothesis.
  - experimental variable.
  - theory.
- Add Question Here
- Question 105 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question In order to determine the cause of behavior, the questions we ask must be
- Answer
- tentative.
  - testable.
  - based on theory.
  - novel.
- Add Question Here
- Question 106 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Your best friend passes you in the school hallway and glares at you without speaking. You think, "Now, why did she do that?" One possible explanation could be that she saw you flirting with her boyfriend. Within the framework of the scientific method, that possible explanation for your friend's behavior would be considered a(n) _____, which will remain tentative until it has been tested.
- Answer
- theory
  - operational definition
  - hypothesis
  - relative certainty
- Add Question Here
- Question 107 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question An industrial-organizational psychologist has been asked to identify the ways in which high-stress and low-stress game designers are different. After questioning the game designers about how much stress they experience, she comes up with the tentative explanation that low-stress game designers feel they have more control over their work. This tentative explanation would constitute which step in the scientific method?
- Answer
- theory building
  - operationally defining the problem
  - proposing a hypothesis

gathering evidence through observations

Add Question Here

Question 108

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Which of the following could serve as an experimental hypothesis?

- Answer
- Although 25 percent of U.S. drivers say they wear their seatbelts, only 14 percent really do.
  - A case history of multiple personality appeared to be caused by traumatic childhood experiences.
  - College women who are anxious tend to want to wait together.
  - All of these could serve as experimental hypotheses.

Add Question Here

Question 109

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question A(n) _____ states the exact procedures used to represent a concept.

- Answer
- abstract definition
  - operational definition
  - case study
  - theory

Add Question Here

Question 110

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question In order to permit scientific study, covert behaviors are

- Answer
- estimated.
  - not included in the analysis.
  - prevented from interfering with the experiment.
  - operationally defined in terms of overt behavior.

Add Question Here

Question 111

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question The researcher stated that in his experiment, "frustration is described as any interruption of the subject before he or she finishes the timed puzzle." This description is considered to be a(n)

- Answer
- estimated value.
  - theoretical element.
  - operational definition.
  - hypothesis.

Add Question Here

Question 112

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Three research assistants were assigned the task of counting the number of times a particular student exhibited inattentive behaviors during a 30-minute math class. The first research assistant counted five inattentive behaviors, the second recorded eight, and the third observed only two. Assuming the three research assistants are equally accurate in what they observed, the most likely explanation for this discrepancy in recordings would be that the inattentive behavior

- Answer
- was not the correct hypothesis.
  - was not observed for a long enough period of time.
  - was not operationally defined.
  - would require at least five observers for an accurate count.

Add Question Here

Question 113

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question When the researchers used an electronically activated recorder to track people's conversations and count the number of words spoken in a day by women and men, they were _____ of whether women talk more than men.

- Answer
- gathering evidence to test the hypothesis
  - building a theory
  - validating the common-sense statement
  - proposing a hypothesis

Add Question Here

Question 114

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question A system of ideas designed to interrelate concepts and facts in a way that summarizes existing data and predicts future observations is known as a(n)

- Answer
- hypothesis.
  - theory.
  - common-sense statement.
  - operational definition.

Add Question Here

Question 115

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question In order to interrelate concepts and facts and organize a series of observations in a meaningful way, psychologists may develop

- Answer
- hypotheses.
  - theories.
  - surveys.
  - replications.

Add Question Here

Question 116

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question If there were not theories in psychology, the situation might be characterized as

- Answer
- lacking a consistent methodology for doing research.
  - an overwhelming collection of disconnected facts.
  - a rich array of theoretical notions regarding behavior but with few facts to support them.
  - a single, unitary approach to understanding behavior.

Add Question Here

Question 117 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Theory building is important in psychology because it

- Answer
- prevents excessive reliance on empiricism.
  - reduces the need for hypothesis testing.
  - relies heavily on naturalistic observation.
  - provides explanations and guides future research.

Add Question Here

Question 118 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Four developmental psychologists have been conducting separate research into the patterns of language development of deaf children. They meet in Chicago to discuss, summarize, and, hopefully, interrelate their conclusions from their published works and propose future research on this topic. Within the framework of the scientific method, these psychologists would most likely be

- Answer
- proposing a hypothesis.
  - hypothesis testing.
  - operationally defining terms.
  - theory building.

Add Question Here

Question 119 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question An industrial-organizational psychologist conducts an experiment to determine whether having control over difficult tasks reduces stress for game designers and finds this explanation to be true. Drawing on the results of similar experiments, this psychologist creates a _____ to explain why having control over a task helps reduce stress.

- Answer
- hypothesis
  - testable observation
  - theory
  - law

Add Question Here

Question 120 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question _____ is important in psychological research in order to disseminate results to the scientific community.

- Answer
- Theory building
  - Hypothesis testing
  - Publishing
  - Application

Add Question Here

Question 121 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Which of the following statements is/are TRUE regarding the scientific information gained from psychological studies?

- Answer
- Scientific information must be publicly available so other researchers can replicate the research.
  - The results of psychological studies are usually published in professional journals.
  - A research report consists of an abstract, introduction, method, results, and discussion sections.
  - All of these statements are true.

Add Question Here

Question 122 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Research reports begin with a very brief summary of the study and its findings. This is known as the

- Answer
- abstract.
  - introduction.
  - method.
  - discussion review.

Add Question Here

Question 123 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Kelly is writing a paper on conformity for her psychology class. In order to find the research articles she needs for the paper, the first step for her would be to get an overview of each of the articles that come up in her computer search. She should first read which part of each article?

- Answer
- abstract
  - introduction
  - method
  - discussion review

Add Question Here

Question 124 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Which section of a research report provides background information by reviewing prior studies on the same or related topics to the current one being investigated?

- Answer
- results
  - introduction
  - method
  - discussion

Add Question Here

- Question 125 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question In which section of their research report in Science did Mehl and his colleagues describe their research question regarding whether women talk more than men and then provide background information on this topic by reviewing prior studies on this subject?
- Answer
- results
  - introduction
  - method
  - discussion
- Add Question Here
- Question 126 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question A psychologist wishes to repeat an experiment in a rural school that was originally conducted in an urban school setting. In order to repeat the specific procedures used to gather the data, this psychologist should pay close attention to which section of the original research report?
- Answer
- discussion
  - introduction
  - method
  - results
- Add Question Here
- Question 127 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question The specific procedures used to gather data are described in which section of a research report?
- Answer
- discussion
  - introduction
  - method
  - results
- Add Question Here
- Question 128 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question In a journal article, the researcher reported that statistically significant differences were found between the two groups in the study. This outcome from the investigation would be found in which section(s) of the research article?
- Answer
- results
  - introduction
  - method
  - all of these
- Add Question Here
- Question 129 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question The implications of the study and proposals for future research would be found in which section of a research report?
- Answer
- results
  - introduction
  - method
  - discussion
- Add Question Here
- Question 130 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Psychology's history as a science began in
- Answer
- 1848 at Harvard University.
  - 1879 in Leipzig, Germany.
  - 1895 in Vienna, Austria.
  - 1905 in Paris, France.
- Add Question Here
- Question 131 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Psychology became a science in 1879 when psychologists began to
- Answer
- avoid deductive thinking.
  - understand the relationship between humans and animals.
  - use computers to record the behaviors of organisms.
  - make observations, perform experiments, and seek information.
- Add Question Here
- Question 132 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question The father of psychology and founder of the first psychological laboratory was
- Answer
- Wilhelm Wundt.
  - Sigmund Freud.
  - John B. Watson.
  - B.F. Skinner.
- Add Question Here
- Question 133 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question The first psychological laboratory was set up in order to
- Answer
- break down conscious experiences, such as sensations.
  - study how the use of reinforcement and punishment alter behaviors.
  - understand the unconscious conflicts individuals experience.
  - understand how language and intelligence develop.

Add Question Here

Question 134 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Wundt systematically observed and measured _____, which consist of physical energy that affect people and evoke a response.

Answer

- archetypes
- metacomponents
- ✓ stimuli
- precipitants

Add Question Here

Question 135 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Wundt observed stimuli of various kinds and then used a process called _____ to probe his reactions to these stimuli.

Answer

- analytical logic
- reduction division
- transduction
- ✓ introspection

Add Question Here

Question 136 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Which of the following used introspection as a scientific technique for investigating consciousness?

Answer

- B. F. Skinner
- Ivan Pavlov
- John Watson
- ✓ Wilhelm Wundt

Add Question Here

Question 137 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question _____ carried Wundt's ideas to the United States and called these ideas _____.

Answer

- Freud; introspection
- Pavlov; functionalism
- Watson; humanism
- ✓ Titchener; structuralism

Add Question Here

Question 138 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question E.B. Titchener is known for

Answer

- developing psychoanalysis.
- working with animals using behavioral principles.
- ✓ bringing structuralism to America.
- developing the Gestalt principles of perception.

Add Question Here

Question 139 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question The structuralist school of psychology

Answer ✓

- used introspection to analyze conscious experience.
- relied heavily on the concept of natural selection.
- was concerned with experiences as wholes.
- used dream analysis to reveal the unconscious.

Add Question Here

Question 140 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question In their attempts to analyze consciousness into its elements, the structuralists used a method called

Answer

- conditioning.
- Gestalt synthesis.
- natural selection.
- ✓ introspection.

Add Question Here

Question 141 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Which of the following statements regarding the process of introspection is/are TRUE?

Answer ✓

- People rarely disagreed regarding the perceptions they obtain during introspection.
- Introspection was the main technique utilized by the functionalists.
- ✓ Introspection is still used today as one source of insight in studies of hypnosis, meditation, problem solving, and moods.
- All of these statements are true.

Add Question Here

Question 142 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question A shortcoming of structuralism was its inability to

Answer ✓

- define the subject matter of psychology.
- explore controversial issues.
- study humans as well as animals.
- ✓ provide a means for resolving disagreements regarding introspection.

Add Question Here

- Question 143 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question William James wrote Principles of Psychology and founded
- Answer
- structuralism.
  - functionalism.
  - behaviorism.
  - humanism.
- Add Question Here
- Question 144 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question _____, an American scholar, broadened psychology to include animal behavior, religious experience, and abnormal behavior and helped to establish psychology as a separate discipline with his first book, Principles of Psychology.
- Answer
- William James.
  - B.F. Skinner.
  - Edward Titchener.
  - John Watson.
- Add Question Here
- Question 145 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question The concept of natural selection was adapted to the study of human behavior by which of the early psychologists?
- Answer
- John Watson
  - Carl Rogers
  - Edward Titchener
  - William James
- Add Question Here
- Question 146 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question The functionalists were interested in how thoughts, feelings, perceptions, and habits help people and animals
- Answer
- form meaningful Gestalts.
  - introspect and experience the phi phenomenon.
  - adapt to their environment.
  - form connections between stimuli and responses.
- Add Question Here
- Question 147 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question William James regarded consciousness as
- Answer
- connections between stimuli and responses.
  - an ever-changing flow of images and sensations.
  - being overshadowed by the unconscious mind.
  - a set of building blocks to be analyzed through introspection.
- Add Question Here
- Question 148 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question The functionalists primarily followed the principles of
- Answer
- economics and the law of supply and demand.
  - physics and the laws of gravity.
  - biology and natural selection.
  - chemistry and the table of elements.
- Add Question Here
- Question 149 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Which pair of persons had the most similar ideas?
- Answer
- Titchener-----Skinner
  - James-----Darwin
  - Watson-----Rogers
  - Wertheimer-----Maslow
- Add Question Here
- Question 150 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Which school of thought brought the study of animals to psychology and also promoted educational psychology and industrial psychology?
- Answer
- structuralism
  - functionalism
  - humanistic psychology
  - Gestalt psychology
- Add Question Here
- Question 151 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question _____ is the school of thought in psychology that emphasizes the study of overt, observable behavior.
- Answer
- Gestalt psychology
  - Behaviorism
  - Structuralism
  - Functionalism
- Add Question Here
- Question 152 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question _____ realized that he could study the overt behavior of animals by simply observing the relationship between stimuli and an animal's responses.

- Answer
- John B. Watson
  - Wilhelm Wundt
  - Abraham Maslow
  - Max Wertheimer

Add Question Here

Question 153 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question According to John B. Watson, introspection was

- Answer
- a valid method of research.
  - unscientific.
  - the cornerstone of behaviorism.
  - the study of the mind in use.

Add Question Here

Question 154 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question According to John B. Watson, psychology is the study of

- Answer
- the mind.
  - conscious experience.
  - mental states.
  - behavior.

Add Question Here

Question 155 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Who said, "Give me a dozen healthy infants...and I'll guarantee to take any one at random and train him to become any type of specialist I might select...?"

- Answer
- William James
  - Ivan Pavlov
  - Sigmund Freud
  - John Watson

Add Question Here

Question 156 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Pavlov's contribution to behaviorism lies in his discovery of

- Answer
- the conditioned response.
  - self-observation.
  - conscious experience.
  - unconscious motivation.

Add Question Here

Question 157 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question To explain most behavior, John B. Watson adopted the concept of conditioning developed by

- Answer
- Max Wertheimer.
  - Abraham Maslow.
  - Ivan Pavlov.
  - E. B. Titchener.

Add Question Here

Question 158 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Stimuli, responses, conditioning, and learning are key concepts in the thinking of

- Answer
- behaviorists.
  - Gestalt psychologists.
  - structuralists.
  - psychoanalysts.

Add Question Here

Question 159 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question With its emphasis on stimuli and responses, which school of thought helped make psychology a natural science, rather than a branch of philosophy?

- Answer
- behaviorism
  - Gestalt psychology
  - humanistic psychology
  - psychoanalysis

Add Question Here

Question 160 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question The idea that a behavior is controlled by rewards and punishments is most closely associated with

- Answer
- Abraham Maslow.
  - B.F. Skinner.
  - Wilhelm Wundt.
  - William James.

Add Question Here

Question 161 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Skinner's contribution to behaviorism lies in his insistence that

- Answer ✓ behavior is shaped and maintained by rewards and punishments.
behavior is only partially conscious.
the whole is more than the sum of its parts.
self-actualization is the primary determinant of behavior.

Add Question Here

Question 162

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Which psychologist advanced the theory that a "designed culture" based on positive reinforcement could encourage desirable behavior?

- Answer
- William James
  - ✓ B.F. Skinner
  - Max Wertheimer
  - Carl Rogers

Add Question Here

Question 163

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Which of the following is a FALSE statement concerning B. F. Skinner's work?

- Answer ✓ He is known for developing the theory of classical conditioning through experiments in which he conditioned dogs to salivate to bells.
He developed an operant conditioning chamber that bears his name.
He believed that misguided rewards lead to destructive actions that create problems, such as overpopulation, pollution, and war.
He disliked the use of punishment because it does not teach correct responses.

Add Question Here

Question 164

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Skinner's view of psychology has led to some criticism of his tendency to

- Answer ✓ believe mental events, such as thinking, are not needed to explain behavior.
rely too heavily on introspection.
favor punishment over reinforcement as a means of controlling behavior.
ignore the impact of behaviorism on psychological thought.

Add Question Here

Question 165

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Radical behaviorists were criticized for ignoring the role that _____ play(s) in our lives.

- Answer
- rewards
  - ✓ thinking
  - punishments
  - stimuli

Add Question Here

Question 166

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question _____ is the proper use of rewards, punishments, and conditioning to change problems, such as overeating, unrealistic fears, and temper tantrums.

- Answer
- Psychoanalysis
  - Gestalt psychology
  - Self-actualization
  - ✓ Behavior therapy

Add Question Here

Question 167

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question The psychological view that combines thinking (and the expectation of the reward) with learning theory is known as

- Answer
- psychobehaviorism.
  - ✓ cognitive behaviorism.
  - cognitive functionalism.
  - Gestalt psychology.

Add Question Here

Question 168

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Patrick borrows his mother's car keys and tries to start the car as he has seen his parents do so often. Their neighbor, who is a psychologist, explained that Patrick modeled his parents' driving behavior because he had the expectation of being rewarded with the fun of driving. This explanation best fits which psychological viewpoint?

- Answer
- psychobehaviorism
  - Gestalt psychology
  - psychoanalysis
  - ✓ cognitive behaviorism

Add Question Here

Question 169

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Which school of thought would explain that you go to different music websites because you have the expectation that you will find music selections that you will enjoy on these sites?

- Answer
- humanistic psychology
  - structuralism
  - ✓ cognitive behaviorism
  - psychoanalysis.

Add Question Here

Question 170 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Which of the following is a FALSE statement concerning Gestalt Psychology?

- Answer
- Gestalt Psychology's motto is "The whole is greater than the sum of its parts."
  - Gestalt Psychology was founded by Max Wertheimer.
  - Gestalt Psychology has greatly influenced studies of perception and personality.
  - Gestalt Psychology explains behavior in terms of stimuli and responses.

Add Question Here

Question 171 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question _____ emphasizes the study of thinking, learning, and perception in whole units, not by analysis into parts.

- Answer
- Behaviorism
  - Comparative psychology
  - Structuralism
  - Gestalt psychology

Add Question Here

Question 172 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question The "whole is greater than the sum of its parts" is the slogan of the

- Answer
- Gestalt psychologists.
  - behaviorists.
  - structuralists.
  - psychoanalysts.

Add Question Here

Question 173 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Max Wertheimer is associated with which one of the following schools of thought?

- Answer
- Gestalt psychology
  - behaviorism
  - psychoanalysis
  - functionalism

Add Question Here

Question 174 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Of the following, who is associated with the Gestalt school of psychology?

- Answer
- Ivan Pavlov
  - B.F. Skinner
  - Max Wertheimer
  - John Watson

Add Question Here

Question 175 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question A Gestalt psychologist might

- Answer
- recommend rewarding yourself with a movie instead of a candy bar.
  - suggest that you explore patterns in your behavior as a whole rather than analyzing each individual action.
  - examine each individual element of your behavior.
  - recommend all of these.

Add Question Here

Question 176 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question When we see a painting by George Seurat, the famous French impressionist, we tend to experience it as a rendering of a lovely landscape rather than as the series of separate, differently colored dots of which the painting is actually composed. This phenomenon illustrates which school of thought in psychology?

- Answer
- Structuralism
  - Behaviorism
  - Gestalt psychology
  - Psychodynamic psychology

Add Question Here

Question 177 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question The founder of psychoanalytic psychology was

- Answer
- Carl Rogers.
  - Wilhelm Wundt.
  - Sigmund Freud.
  - William James.

Add Question Here

Question 178 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question As used by Freud, the unconscious refers to

- Answer
- those things we choose to forget.
  - the area of the mind that lies outside of personal awareness.
  - the tip of the iceberg.
  - all of these.

Add Question Here

- Question 179 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Repression refers to
- Answer
- thoughts held out of awareness because they are unimportant.
  - thoughts held out of awareness because they are threatening.
  - forgetfulness or thoughts held out of awareness unintentionally.
  - the fact that no thoughts, emotions, and actions are predetermined.
- Add Question Here
- Question 180 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Contributions of Freud include
- Answer
- the insistence that all thoughts, desires, and actions are determined.
  - the development of the method of psychotherapy called psychoanalysis.
  - emphasis on the importance of childhood experiences in personality development.
  - all of these.
- Add Question Here
- Question 181 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Freud stressed the role of _____ in shaping our personalities.
- Answer
- self-actualization
  - conditioned responses
  - rewards and punishments
  - unconscious conflicts
- Add Question Here
- Question 182 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question According to Freud, unconscious thoughts are often revealed by
- Answer  dreams, emotions, and slips of the tongue.
- self-actualization and peak experiences.
  - stimulus-response connections.
  - behaviors conditioned through reinforcement and punishment.
- Add Question Here
- Question 183 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Psychoanalysis
- Answer
- was the first talking therapy.
  - explores unconscious conflicts and emotional problems.
  - was created by Sigmund Freud.
  - is characterized by all of these.
- Add Question Here
- Question 184 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Sigmund Freud's approach to psychotherapy is known as
- Answer
- Gestalt therapy.
  - psychoanalysis.
  - behavior modification.
  - client-centered therapy.
- Add Question Here
- Question 185 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Sigmund Freud's approach to psychotherapy is known as
- Answer
- Gestalt therapy.
  - psychoanalysis.
  - behavior modification.
  - client-centered therapy.
- Add Question Here
- Question 186 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Freud's legacy is evident in various psychodynamic theories, which emphasize
- Answer  internal motives, conflicts, and unconscious forces.
- free will and self-determination.
  - that the whole of one's personality is greater than the sum of its parts.
  - the use of rewards and punishments to shape behavior.
- Add Question Here
- Question 187 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove
- Question Which of the following statements concerning psychodynamic psychology is TRUE?
- Answer
- Freud's theories were very involved and extensive, but they ended up contributing very little to our understanding of human behavior.
  - Freud's theories remain influential today and are largely unchanged from their first conceptualizations.
  - Almost immediately, many of Freud's students broke away from his theories in order to modify and change them.
  - Psychodynamic psychology focuses on observable behaviors.
- Add Question Here
- Question 188 - Multiple Choice 0 points Modify Remove

Question Which of the following would be considered a Neo-Freudian?

- Answer
- Otto Rank
  - Anna Freud
  - Karen Horney
  - all of these

Add Question Here

Question 189

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Which of the following would NOT be considered a Neo-Freudian?

- Answer
- Abraham Maslow
  - Alfred Adler
  - Erik Erikson
  - Carl Jung

Add Question Here

Question 190

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Alfred Adler, Karen Horney, Carl Jung, Otto Rank, and Erik Erikson would be considered

- Answer
- Gestalt psychologists.
  - Neo-Freudians.
  - Cognitive behaviorists.
  - Functionalists.

Add Question Here

Question 191

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Which of the following statements concerning psychodynamic psychology is TRUE?

- Answer
- Freud's theories involved learned behaviors resulting from stimulus-response connections.
  - Psychoanalytic psychology focuses on external sources of motivation and conscious forces.
  - Neo-Freudians revised parts of Freud's theory, often placing less emphasis on sex and aggression and more on social motives and relationships.
  - None of these statements are true.

Add Question Here

Question 192

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question You see a psychologist and tell her that you are feeling depressed. The psychologist talks to you about your past and attempts to link your present situation with unconscious patterns developed in your childhood as you interacted with your parents. The psychologist would probably belong to which school of psychology?

- Answer
- humanistic psychology
  - psychodynamic psychology
  - behaviorism
  - Gestalt psychology

Add Question Here

Question 193

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question After your traumatic breakup with your girlfriend, you are having trouble remembering her phone number, her birthday, and other bits of information concerning your two-year relationship. A friend tells you that you are experiencing repression and these bits of information have been pushed into your unconscious mind. Your friend is interpreting your situation based on the theories of

- Answer
- Max Wertheimer.
  - Sigmund Freud.
  - Abraham Maslow.
  - Carl Rogers.

Add Question Here

Question 194

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Humanistic psychologists rejected psychoanalytic theory and behaviorism because they deemed both of these viewpoints to be

- Answer
- unscientific.
  - too subjective.
  - too deterministic.
  - characterized by all of these.

Add Question Here

Question 195

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Which of the following would be considered humanistic psychologists?

- Answer
- B.F. Skinner and John B. Watson
  - Wilhelm Wundt and E.B. Titchener
  - Max Wertheimer and William James
  - Abraham Maslow and Carl Rogers

Add Question Here

Question 196

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Carl Rogers and Abraham Maslow belong to which school of thought in psychology?

- Answer
- humanistic psychology
  - psychoanalytical psychology
  - behaviorism
  - Gestalt psychology

Add Question Here

Question 197 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Humanistic theories emphasize

- Answer
- internal motives, conflicts, and unconscious forces.
  - free will and self-determination.
  - that stimulus and response connections determine behavior.
  - the use of rewards and punishments to shape behavior.

Add Question Here

Question 198 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Initially, the _____ were less interested in treating psychology as a science and stressed more subjective factors, such as one's self-image. Today, most do research to test their ideas, just as other psychologists.

- Answer
- behaviorists
  - functionalists
  - humanists
  - structuralists

Add Question Here

Question 199 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Which school of thought in psychology emphasizes free will and self-determination and stimulated interest in the psychological needs of love and belonging, self-esteem, and self-actualization?

- Answer
- humanistic psychology
  - behaviorism
  - psychoanalytic psychology
  - functionalism

Add Question Here

Question 200 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Which of the following is characteristic of a humanistic approach to the study of behavior?

- Answer
- reliance on animal research
  - interest in unconscious forces and conflicts within the personality
  - emphasis on conditioned responses
  - emphasis on the importance of subjective factors, such as one's self-image

Add Question Here

Question 201 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question According to the _____ view, the need for love, self-esteem, belonging, self-expression, creativity, and spirituality are as important as biological needs.

- Answer
- psychodynamic
  - behavioral
  - humanistic
  - cognitive

Add Question Here

Question 202 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question _____ refers to appraising yourself as good or bad, while _____ is the mental perspective that you use to interpret events.

- Answer
- Self-actualization; self-reinforcement
  - Self-evaluation; self-actualization
  - Self-evaluation; frame of reference
  - Frame of reference; self-reinforcement

Add Question Here

Question 203 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Frame of reference is

- Answer
- another name for one's self-image.
  - one's image of others.
  - a mental perspective used for evaluating events.
  - a determinist perspective that is involved in shaping one's personality.

Add Question Here

Question 204 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Karen sees herself as attractive, extroverted, and dependable. According to the humanistic approach, Karen's description of herself would be referred to as

- Answer
- her superego.
  - her self-image.
  - a self-reinforcement.
  - a self-actualization.

Add Question Here

Question 205 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Barry goes to a psychologist who will try to understand Barry's frame of reference in interpreting the world and to improve Barry's self-image. Barry's psychologist is most likely utilizing the _____ approach to therapy.

- Answer
- humanistic
  - behaviorist
  - psychoanalytical

functionalist

Add Question Here

Question 206 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Humanists seek to understand

Answer the role of rewards in controlling behavior.
 how people perceive themselves and experience the world.
how childhood experiences influence adult behavior.
the role of dreams in determining behavior.

Add Question Here

Question 207 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Maslow proposed a need to develop one's potential and be the best one can be, which he called

Answer self-image. self-concept.
self-esteem.
 self-actualization.

Add Question Here

Question 208 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Which of the following best describes Maslow's concept of self-actualization?

Answer the need to protect one's self-image through self-deception the need to have a higher self-esteem the need to develop one's potential fully the need for power

Add Question Here

Question 209 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question The process of fully developing one's personal potential and becoming the best person one can become is known as determinism.

Answer introspection.
conditioning.
 self-actualization.

Add Question Here

Question 210 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question You see a psychologist and tell her that you are feeling depressed. She talks to you about the goals you have for yourself, about your image of yourself, and about the choices that you can make in your life so that you can realize your potential. This psychologist would probably belong to the _____ school of psychology.

Answer  humanistic
psychodynamic
behavioristic
Gestalt

Add Question Here

Question 211 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question The first psychology course was taught by

Answer E.B. Titchener.
John Watson.
 William James.
B.F. Skinner

Add Question Here

Question 212 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question The first American psychology textbook was written by

Answer E.B. Titchener.
John Watson.
Carl Rogers.
 John Dewey.

Add Question Here

Question 213 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Which of the following notable events in psychology occurred FIRST?

Answer  The American Psychological Association was founded.
Sigmund Freud published The Interpretation of Dreams.
Carl Rogers published Counseling and Psychotherapy.
Ivan Pavlov reports his research on conditioned reflexes.

Add Question Here

Question 214 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Which of the following notable events in psychology occurred LAST?

Answer The American Psychological Association was founded.
Sigmund Freud published The Interpretation of Dreams.
 Carl Rogers published Counseling and Psychotherapy.

The first American psychology lab was founded at Johns Hopkins.

Add Question Here

Question 215

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question According to your psychology textbook, which of the following statements is TRUE regarding women in psychology?

Answer By 1906 in America, only one psychologist in 50 was a woman.

- In recent years nearly 75 percent of the college graduates with a major in psychology are women.
- It was not until 1956 that a woman became president of the American Psychological Association for the first time.
- Carol Gilligan was the first woman to be awarded a Ph.D. in psychology in 1894.

Add Question Here

Question 216

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question According to your psychology textbook, which of the following statements is FALSE regarding women in psychology?

Answer By 1906 in America, about one psychologist in 10 was a woman.

- In recent years nearly 75 percent of the college graduates with a major in psychology are women.
- It was not until 1945 that a woman became president of the American Psychological Association for the first time.
- Margaret Washburn was the first woman to be awarded a Ph.D. in psychology in 1894.

Add Question Here

Question 217

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Which of the following matches concerning women in psychology is CORRECT?

Answer  Margaret Washburn-----first woman to be awarded a Ph.D. in psychology.
Christine Ladd-Franklin----first woman president of the American Psychological Association.
Mary Calkins-----wrote a textbook on animal behavior entitled The Animal Mind.
Anna Freud-----studied color vision.

Add Question Here

Question 218

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Who conducted pioneering work on memory and was the first female president of the APA in 1905?

Answer Margaret Washburn
Christine Ladd-Franklin
 Mary Calkins
Anna Freud

Add Question Here

Question 219

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question _____ wrote an influential textbook on animal behavior entitled The Animal Mind.

Answer  Margaret Washburn
Christine Ladd-Franklin
Mary Calkins
Anna Freud

Add Question Here

Question 220

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question _____ studied color vision and was ranked among the 50 most important psychologists in America in 1906.

Answer Margaret Washburn
 Christine Ladd-Franklin
Mary Calkins
Anna Freud

Add Question Here

Question 221

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Regarding contemporary trends in psychology, which of the following statements is/are TRUE?

Answer Structuralism has disappeared entirely.
Functionalism and Gestalt psychology have blended into newer, broader perspectives.
Today, many psychologists are eclectic.
 All of these statements are true.

Add Question Here

Question 222

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question The eclectic approach

Answer stresses the Gestalt perspective.
emphasizes the biological functioning of the brain and nervous system.
 embraces a variety of theoretical views.
has disappeared entirely as a perspective in psychology.

Add Question Here

Question 223

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question A psychologist who is "eclectic" can best be described as cognitive rather than behavioral.

Answer rejecting determinism in favor of free will.
 drawing from many psychological approaches.
preferring pseudo-psychological approaches.

Add Question Here

Question 224 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Eclectic psychologists are known for

- Answer
- treating only minor adjustment problems.
  - drawing on a variety of theoretical views.
  - working in many different mental health settings.
  - stressing the role of the unconscious.

Add Question Here

Question 225 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question You discuss your feelings of loneliness with a psychologist, who responds by having you consider how your own behaviors contribute and reinforce your loneliness, how your early childhood relationship with your parents influences current relationships, and how your distorted self-image may inhibit you from seeking new relationships. This psychologist is most likely

- Answer
- a humanist.
  - eclectic.
  - a behaviorist.
  - Freudian.

Add Question Here

Question 226 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question When a psychologist draws and utilizes aspects from many different psychological theories and approaches, we say that the psychologist is

- Answer
- psychoanalytic-behavioral.
  - a functionalist.
  - a structuralist.
  - eclectic.

Add Question Here

Question 227 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question According to your textbook, which of the following is NOT one of the three broad perspectives that shape modern psychology?

- Answer
- biological
  - therapeutic
  - psychological
  - sociocultural

Add Question Here

Question 228 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question The _____ perspective seeks to explain behavior in terms of brain processes, evolution, and genetics.

- Answer
- sociocultural
  - behavioristic
  - psychodynamic
  - biological

Add Question Here

Question 229 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question According to the _____ view, human and animal behavior is the result of internal physical and chemical mechanisms.

- Answer
- biopsychological
  - behavioristic
  - psychodynamic
  - humanistic

Add Question Here

Question 230 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Psychologists who advocate the biopsychological view

- Answer
- limit the scope of their study to animals.
  - are concerned primarily with environmental influences on behavior.
  - explore interactions between humans and other living things.
  - attempt to explain behavior in terms of physical processes.

Add Question Here

Question 231 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question Biopsychologists and others who study the brain and nervous system, such as biologists and biochemists, form the broader field of

- Answer
- evolutionary psychology.
  - cognitive science.
  - neuroscience.
  - ethnology.

Add Question Here

Question 232 - Multiple Choice 0 points

Modify Remove

Question The _____ view is considered reductionistic and mechanistic and seeks to explain behavior through the activity of the genes, endocrine system, and one's physiology.

- Answer
- behavioristic
  - biopsychological

psychodynamic
humanistic

Add Question Here

Question 233

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question The _____ view is considered reductionistic and mechanistic and seeks to explain behavior through the principles of natural selection.

Answer

- behavioristic
- humanistic
- psychodynamic
- ✓ evolutionary

Add Question Here

Question 234

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question _____ psychologists attempt to explain our current behavior by looking back at human history to learn how natural selection and genetics have affected us.

Answer

- ✓ Evolutionary
- Humanistic
- Psychodynamic
- Behavioristic

Add Question Here

Question 235

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question According to your textbook, which view of human behavior is NOT considered a part of the psychological perspective?

Answer

- cognitive view
- humanistic view
- ✓ sociocultural view
- behavioristic view

Add Question Here

Question 236

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question The _____ view sees behavior as being shaped and controlled by one's environment.

Answer

- cognitive
- humanistic
- biopsychological
- ✓ behavioristic

Add Question Here

Question 237

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question The key idea in the behavioristic view is that

Answer ✓

- behavior is shaped and controlled by one's environment.
- behavior is the result of clashing forces within the personality.
- behavior can be understood in terms of the mental processing of information.
- environment plays a very small role in controlling one's behavior.

Add Question Here

Question 238

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Which of the following psychological approaches is matched correctly to its view of human nature?

Answer

- psychodynamic-----positive, philosophical view
- ✓ behavioristic-----neutral, scientific, somewhat mechanistic view
- humanistic-----somewhat negative, pessimistic view
- cognitive-----positive, philosophical view

Add Question Here

Question 239

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question Latoya's mother has established a reward system in which Latoya earns one gold star for each chore she completes each day. If she earns 25 stars by the end of the week, Latoya's mother will take her to play at the "fast food restaurant's" playground for two hours. Latoya's mother is using which psychological approach?

Answer

- psychodynamic
- cognitive
- humanistic
- ✓ behavioristic

Add Question Here

Question 240

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question The approach in psychology that views behavior in terms of the mental processing of information is the _____ view.

Answer

- ✓ cognitive
- humanistic
- behavioristic
- biopsychological

Add Question Here

Question 241

Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify

Remove

Question The cognitive view

Answer

explains behavior in terms of information processing.

is concerned with decision-making and problem-solving.
may be perceived as a somewhat computer-like view of human nature.
is characterized by all of these statements.

Add Question Here

Question 242 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question In describing how a person arrives at a decision, a psychology professor explains to his class that "the mind is very much like a computer and that decision-making involves input, processing, storage, and output." This professor is emphasizing which view of behavior?

Answer

- cognitive
- behavioristic
- humanistic
- psychodynamic

Add Question Here

Question 243 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Perception, thinking, language, problem-solving, and creativity are topics of investigation for those interested in

Answer

- cognitive psychology.
- psychodynamic psychology.
- pseudopsychology.
- humanistic psychology.

Add Question Here

Question 244 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Cognitive psychologists and other researchers in cognition, such as computer scientists and linguists, form the broader field of

Answer

- biopsychology.
- learning theory.
- cognitive science.
- positive psychology.

Add Question Here

Question 245 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question A psychologist whose viewpoint is psychodynamic

Answer

- focuses on self-image and self-actualization to explain behavior.
- believes behavior is directed by unconscious forces within one's personality.
- emphasizes the study of observable behavior.
- emphasizes subjective factors and personal growth.

Add Question Here

Question 246 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question The major perspective in psychology that views behavior as directed by often hidden forces within one's personality is the _____ view.

Answer

- cognitive
- humanistic
- psychodynamic
- biopsychological

Add Question Here

Question 247 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Which of the following psychological approaches is matched correctly to its view of human nature?

Answer

- behavioristic-----positive, philosophical view
- humanistic-----neutral, scientific, somewhat mechanistic view
- psychodynamic-----somewhat negative, pessimistic view
- cognitive-----positive, philosophical view

Add Question Here

Question 248 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Sandra claims that Antoine's anxiety originates from unresolved sexual conflicts residing in his unconscious. Sandra's interpretation of Antoine's condition is consistent with the _____ perspective.

Answer

- behavioristic
- humanistic
- psychodynamic
- cognitive

Add Question Here

Question 249 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question The _____ perspective focuses on subjective, conscious experience, human problems, potentials, and ideals and emphasizes one's self-image and self-actualization.

Answer

- behavioristic
- humanistic
- psychodynamic
- cognitive

Add Question Here

Question 250 - Multiple Choice

0 points

Modify Remove

Question Taylor believes his behavior is guided by his own self-image and that he has the power to control his own fate and reach his full potential. Taylor has adopted which psychological perspective?

Answer

- behavioristic
- cognitive
- psychodynamic
- ✔ humanistic

◀ Add Question Here